

Celebration Service for Henry Vaughan

Sunday 5 March 2017 4-30pm

As part of the Crickhowell Walking Festival, the 'Swan of the Usk' walk will finish at Llansantffraed Church with a service of celebration to Henry Vaughan provided by the Unicorn Singers.

All (local and visitors) are welcome. Free entry - donations to church maintenance. Tea provided from 4.00pm.

For more information re the service, contact Mervyn Bramley tel: 01874 665267 e: mervyn.bramley@icloud.com

Walk 83 The Swan of the Usk

Date: Sunday 5th March

Meeting Point: Llangattock Church SO 210178

Times: 9am to 6.00pm

Distance: 11 miles

Ascent: 700 ft

Leader: Stephen Marshall

Price: £12.00 (includes £4.00 bus fare)

Sponsored by: Unicorn Singers

#findyourepic

A pilgrimage to Llansantffraed to celebrate the poet Henry Vaughan and the beauty of the river Usk. This walk starts at Llangattock, where Henry Vaughan was educated and then takes you through the Glanusk estate and lands belonging to Buckland Hall, by kind permission of the respective owners, and allows you to glimpse parts of the beautiful River Usk not normally seen by the public. It ends at Llansantffraed Church with refreshments followed by a commemorative service for Henry Vaughan sung by the Unicorn Singers.

For more information on the walk, see Crickhowell Walking Festival website - www.crickhowellfestival.com