AIMS AND ACTIVITIES

To encourage an interest in the Archaeology, History, Geology, Natural History, the Arts and Literature of Wales, especially Brecknock, and for that purpose to:

- assist the development of the Brecknock Museum & Art Gallery, by purchasing equipment and artefacts, and to lobby on its behalf;
- oversee the Schools History competition and the Archive project;
- promote the Roland Mathias Literary Prize (now part of the Wales Book of the Year Award);
- arrange monthly lectures during the winter, including the notable Sir John Lloyd Memorial Lecture;
- organise site visits and outings during the summer;
- publish 'Brycheiniog', the Society's learned journal which is produced annually and is highly regarded throughout Wales. (If you would like to be a regular subscriber, please fill in the separate Bankers Standing Order form).

Please send this Application form to the Membership Secretary c/o Brecknock Museum, Captain's Walk, Brecon, LD3 7DS completing a standing order form, it is helpful if you can do this directly with your bank.

The Society's website is www.brecknocksociety.co.uk and contains contact details of the officers.
