In aid of Llansantffraed Church maintenance funds

We are delighted to welcome back to Llansantffraed the Gwent-based poet Jeff Rees, who contributed to our 'Swan of the Usk' concert last June. In this concert, he forms an award-winning duo with internationally renowned harpist Elinor Bennett as 'Rhythm and Rhyme'. They have a wide-ranging repertoire of music, song and recited poetry.

The 'Potpourri of Music and Words' will have some Welsh flavours including works for the harp by John Parry, John Thomas and William Mathias, and Welsh folk songs. Jeff Rees will span the centuries with recitation, including some of his own work and some accompanied by the harp. Some poems will link to Llansantffraed's own poet, Henry Vaughan.

This concert is part of an ongoing series of events organised by Llansantffraed Church and its Friends that broaden the use of the church, which has an excellent acoustic and is a Victorian architectural gem. A toilet facility is provided at our concerts.
