Launch of 'A Last Respect'

You are invited to the launch of a new anthology of contemporary poetry which contains some of the finest poetry published in Wales this century. A Last Respect, published by Seren, includes poems by the winners of the Roland Mathias Prize over the last fifteen years.

The session will feature the editors of the anthology, Professor Daniel Williams and Glyn Mathias, and will be chaired by Chris Meredith, the noted Brecon poet. The programme will include readings of some of the prize-winning poems.

7.30pm Friday October 29th 2021

At The Muse, Glamorgan Street, Brecon and also streamed via Youtube

If you would like to be present at the Muse, please contact Elaine Starling (elainestarling10@icloud.com). Elaine will also be able to supply the Youtube link to those wishing to attend the event remotely. There will also be some possibility of using the link to watch the event at a later time.
